

I am opposed to the impending action of the FCC to ease restrictions on multiple ownership of TV & radio stations. You are the ones who are supposed to be making sure that the broadcasters are acting in the public interest. Do the job that we the people are paying you to do, instead of doing the bidding of Dubya and his corporate cronies.